“prescribed particulars” means—

- (a) as to any birth, the sex, name, date and place of birth, the names, residence, occupations and nationality of the parents, and such other particulars as the Minister may by rule prescribe;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of Births and Deaths for Malawi appointed under section 14.

Part I – Registration of births

3. Register to be kept in every district

The Registration Officer of each district shall keep a register, and shall enter therein every birth of a child born alive within his district after the commencement of this Act, whereof the prescribed particulars are reported to him.

4. Mode of registration

Every person registering the birth of a child shall, to the best of his knowledge and ability, give the prescribed particulars, and shall certify to their correctness either by signing or, if he be illiterate, by fixing his mark to the register or, if the registration is effected without personal attendance, by signing or affixing his mark to, the prescribed form in which the prescribed particulars are reported to the Registration Officer.

5. Duty to register births

In the case of every child born alive after the commencement of this Act, the registration of whose birth is compulsory, it shall be the duty of the father and the mother, and in default of the father and the mother, of the occupier of the house in which to his knowledge such child is born, and of each person present at the birth, and of the person having charge of such child, to register the birth within three months of the birth. Such registration shall be effected by completing a birth report in respect of such birth and by certifying its correctness by signing or, if unable to sign, by affixing the mark of the person effecting registration to the birth report and delivering it to the Registration Officer of the district where the birth occurred.

Delivery of the birth report to a person for the time being employed in collecting the revenue of the local authority for the area in which the birth occurred shall be deemed to constitute delivery of such report to the Registration Officer of the district in which such area is situated.

[1 of 1969]

6. Illegitimate child

No person shall be bound as father to register the birth of an illegitimate child, and no person shall be entered in the register as the father of such child except at his own request, and upon his acknowledging himself to be the father of the child and signing, or affixing his mark to the birth report as such.

7. Registration after three months from birth

The Registration Officer shall not enter in the register the birth of any child after three months from the date of birth except upon receiving the written authority of the Registrar and upon payment of the prescribed fee.

8. Exposed child

If any living new-born child, the registration of whose birth is compulsory, is found exposed, it shall be the duty of any person finding such child, and of any person in whose charge such child may be placed, to give such information as the informant possesses for the purpose of registering such birth.

9. Change of name

Where the birth of any child has been registered before it has received a name, or the name by which it was registered is altered, the parent or guardian of such child may, within two years of the registration, on payment of the prescribed fee, and on providing such evidence as the Registration Officer may think necessary, register the name that has been given to the child.

Part II – Registration of deaths

10. Register to be kept in every district

The Registration Officer of each district shall keep a register, and shall enter therein every death occurring within his district after the commencement of this Act whereof the prescribed particulars are reported to him.

11. Mode of registration

Every person registering a death shall to the best of his knowledge and ability give the prescribed particulars, and shall certify to their correctness, either by signing or, if he be illiterate, by affixing his mark to the register, or, if the registration be effected without personal attendance, by signing or affixing his mark to the prescribed form on which the prescribed particulars are reported to the Registration Officer.

12. Duty to register deaths

In the case of every person dying after the commencement of this Act, the registration of whose death is compulsory, it shall be the duty of the nearest relatives of such person who were present at his death or in attendance during his last illness, and in default of such relatives, of every other relative dwelling within the district, and, in default of such relatives, of each person present at the death, and of the occupier of the house in which to his knowledge such death took place; and in default of the persons herein before mentioned, of any inmate of the house, or of any person finding or taking charge of the body of such person, or causing such person to be buried to register the death within one month after the death or finding of the body, or where the Registration Officer is satisfied that from any cause registration could not be effected within the said period, and that no undue delay has taken place within three months after the death or finding of the body. Such registration shall be effected by completing a death report and by certifying its correctness by signing, or, if unable to sign, by affixing the mark of the person effecting registration to the death report and delivering it to the Registration Officer of the district where the death occurred.

Delivery of the death report to a person for the time being employed in collecting the revenue of the local authority for the area in which the death occurred shall be deemed to constitute delivery of such report to the Registration Officer of the district in which such area is situated.

[1 of 1969]

13. Registration after three months from death

The Registration Officer shall not enter in the register a death more than three months after the date of the death, except that where the registration of such death is compulsory the Registration Officer shall enter it upon receiving the written authority of the Registrar, and upon payment of the prescribed fee.
