[Cap. 46:07]

Part II – The Public Procurement and Disposal of Assets Authority

4. Establishment of the Public Procurement and Disposal of Assets Authority

There is hereby established the Public Procurement and Disposal of Assets Authority (in this Act otherwise referred to as the “Authority”), which shall be—

- (a) a public body responsible for the administration of this Act;
- (b) a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal; and
- (c) capable of doing or performing all such acts and things as bodies corporate may, by law, do or perform.

5. Functions of the Authority

- (1) The Authority shall be responsible for the regulation, monitoring and oversight of public procurement and disposal of assets in Mala#i.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the functions of the Authority shall be—
 - (a) to develop and enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of public procurement and disposal of assets operations;
 - (b) to develop standardized and unified procurement and disposal of assets regulations, instructions, and bidding documents which shall be binding on all procuring and disposing entities, in consultation with concerned professional and official entities, for issuance by the relevant authorities for use throughout Mala#i;
 - (c) to establish and maintain institutional linkages with Mala#i Institute of Procurement and Supply and other professional bodies having interest in regulating the ethical behaviour and standards of supply chain management professionals;
 - (d) to collect and establish a data and information base on public procurement and disposal of assets and monitor the performance of procuring and disposing entities and suppliers, contractors, consultants and other service providers so as to ascertain efficiency and compliance with applicable legislation;
 - (e) to maintain and circulate lists of debarred bidders, suppliers, contractors, consultants and other service providers;
 - (f) to provide an annual report of procurement and disposal activities carried out by procuring and disposal entities within three months of the close of the financial year through the Authority to the Minister, who shall lay it before the National Assembly, not less than six months from the date of report;
 - (g) to refer some violations of this Act and the regulations relating to public procurement and disposal of public assets to the relevant budgetary and law enforcement authorities for appropriate action;

- (h) to facilitate administrative review of bid protests in accordance with Part IX; and
 - (i) to carry out economic studies on public procurement and disposal of assets, comparisons, and future projections, so as to provide advice to the Government in respect of the mid-term and long-term policy it may formulate in public procurement and disposal of assets' matters.
- (3) In the exercise of its functions under this Act, the Authority shall act in a manner that is impartial and independent.

6. Powers of the Authority

- (1) The Authority shall, through subsidiary legislation—
- (a) set and enforce monetary thresholds for regulating procurement and disposal functions;
 - (b) subject to paragraph (a), issue a “No Objection” for procurements above the set prior review thresholds;
 - (c) subject to paragraph (a), the Authority shall set a limit below which a “No Objection” shall be considered or issued by the Director General; any “No Objection” above the limit shall be subject to the approval of the Authority;
 - (d) in some cases issue a subpoena within a reasonable time requiring the production of books or accounts, records, documents, or other relevant financial papers or objects necessary for the performance of its duties;
 - (e) access, at any reasonable time, the premises of any procuring and disposing entity whose procurement is being monitored and request for any relevant information from any person, including a Controlling Officer and the head of Procurement and Disposal Unit;
 - (f) summon and examine witnesses regarding any procurement proceeding or disposal process;
 - (g) suspend or debar any bidder, supplier, contractor, consultant and any other service provider that breaches any provision of this Act from participating in procurement proceedings or disposal process;
 - (h) institute procurement or disposal reviews at any time before, during or after contract award;
 - (i) declare misprocurement where applicable and impose appropriate disciplinary and punitive measures;
 - (j) investigate and sanction any procuring and disposing entity or individual involved or suspected to have been involved in misprocurement and any other misconduct;
 - (k) set special conditions for targeted procurement in enhancement of the capacity and performance of micro, small and medium enterprises in consultation with other regulatory bodies; and
 - (l) do all such acts and things as it may consider incidental or conducive to the exercise of its functions under this Act.
- (2) In exercising its powers and functions, the Authority may cooperate with other bodies exercising oversight functions over procuring and disposing entities and may, for that purpose, establish mechanisms for sharing information and working jointly with those bodies.
- (3) The Authority shall provide strategic direction in order to ensure the attainment of their functions under this Act.

7. Membership of the Authority

- (1) The Authority shall consist of—
 - (a) the following five members appointed by the Minister from the following organizations—
 - (i) one member nominated by the Malawi Law Society;
 - (ii) one member nominated by the Malawi Institute of Procurement and Supply;
 - (iii) one member nominated by the Malawi Institute of Engineers;
 - (iv) one member nominated by Malawi Confederation of Chambers of Commerce and Industry; and
 - (v) one member nominated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Malawi; and
 - (b) the following ex officio members—
 - (i) the Chief Secretary or his representative;
 - (ii) the Secretary to the Treasury or his representative; and
 - (iii) the Solicitor General or his representative.
- (2) The members of the Authority other than ex officio members, shall have a minimum of bachelor's degree in their respective fields, obtained from a reputable institution and their appointment shall be subject to the approval of the Public Appointments Committee.
- (3) The Minister shall appoint the chairperson and vice-chairperson from amongst the members appointed under subsection (1).
- (4) With the exception of the ex officio members of the Authority, the rest of the members shall hold office for a period of three years, on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine, and shall be eligible for reappointment for one further term only:

Provided that when electing members into office after the expiry of the three year term the Minister shall have regard to the need to maintain a reasonable degree of continuity on the membership of the Authority so that at least one half of the members or whose terms has expired shall be reappointed for the next term of office.
- (5) Every member of the Authority shall be paid by the Authority such allowances as the Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.
- (6) The Minister may, on the advice of the Authority, terminate the appointment of a member who—
 - (a) has been declared bankrupt;
 - (b) has, within the last five years, been convicted by a competent court of a crime which is punishable with imprisonment without an option of a fine;
 - (c) is otherwise incapacitated;
 - (d) is in default or breach of trust in the discharge of the members' duties under this Act; or
 - (e) if appointed under subsection (1)(a), has ceased to be a member of the professional body which nominated him.
- (7) A member may resign from the Authority upon giving a written notice of one month to the Minister.
- (8) On occurrence of a vacancy in the membership of the Authority due to death or vacation of office by a member, the professional body that nominated the outgoing member shall within six months of such death or vacation of office, nominate other persons from which the Minister shall appoint a new member for the remainder of the term for the outgoing member.

8. Meetings of Authority

- (1) The Authority shall meet to conduct its business at least once every three months at such place and time, as the chairperson may determine.
- (2) An ordinary meeting of the Authority shall be convened with at least fourteen days written notice to the members.
- (3) The chairperson, in consultation with the Director General, or at the written request of two or more members of the Authority may cause an extraordinary meeting of the Authority to be summoned at such place and time as the chairperson may appoint within seven days.
- (4) The quorum at any meeting of the Authority shall be at least five members.
- (5) The chairperson, or in his absence the vice-chairperson, shall preside at the meetings of the Authority and in absence of both the chairperson and vice-chairperson, the members present and forming a quorum shall elect one of their number to preside over such meeting, and the member so elected shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the chairperson.
- (6) The Authority may make standing orders for the regulation of its proceedings and business of any of its committees, and may vary, suspend or revoke any such standing orders.
- (7) Minutes of each meeting of the Authority and a committee of the Authority shall be kept by the secretary to the Authority and shall be confirmed at the succeeding meeting.
- (8) The decision of the Authority at any meeting on any matter shall be that of the majority of the members present and voting, and at all meetings, the person presiding shall have, in the event of an equality of votes, a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberate vote.
- (9) The Authority may, at its discretion, at any time co-opt any person to attend any meeting of the Authority for the purpose of assisting or advising the Authority in respect of any matter under consideration by the Authority but such a member shall not be entitled to vote.
- (10) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Authority shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such a manner as it deems fit.

9. Committees of the Authority

- (1) For the proper exercise of its functions, the Authority may establish such number of committees whose chairpersons shall be members of the Authority in which it may vest such functions as it deems fit.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) above, the Authority may itself exercise that function, and may amend or rescind any decision of the committee.
- (3) The Authority may, as it deems fit, co-opt persons who are not its members to be part of the committee.
- (4) The chairperson of a committee may at any reasonable time and place convene a meeting of that committee.
- (5) The procedures to be followed at a meeting of a committee shall be prefixed by the Authority.

10. Director General

- (1) The Authority shall, in consultation with the Minister, appoint the Director General through a competitive selection process on such terms and conditions as the Authority may determine.

- (2) The Director General shall be a person with—
 - (a) sufficient qualifications and experience in any of the following areas—
 - (i) finance;
 - (ii) economics;
 - (iii) engineering;
 - (iv) accountancy;
 - (v) commerce;
 - (vi) law; or
 - (vii) procurement;
 - (viii) administration; and
 - (b) demonstrable knowledge and experience in procurement.
- (3) The Director General shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority and shall, subject to the general supervision and control of the Authority, be in overall in charge of—
 - (a) day to day operations of the Authority;
 - (b) management of the funds, property and business of the Authority;
 - (c) effective administration and implementation of the provisions of this Act; and
 - (d) provision of secretarial functions to the Authority.
- (4) The Director General shall hold office for a term of four years, and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term.
- (5) The Director General or, in his absence, such other employee of the Authority as he may designate, shall attend meetings of the Authority and acting as the secretary for such meetings, and may address the meetings, but shall not vote on any matter transacted at the meeting.

11. Tenure of office of the Director General

The Director General shall be appointed to a term of office of four years, and may be re-appointed for a further term.

12. Removal of the Director General

- (1) The Authority may terminate the Director General's appointment on the following grounds—
 - (a) incompetence;
 - (b) inability to perform the functions of his office by reason of a mental or physical infirmity;
 - (c) conviction of an offence which is punishable with imprisonment without an option of a fine;
 - (d) involvement in a corrupt transaction;
 - (e) misconduct that brings the Authority into disrepute;
 - (f) non-disclosure of interest; and
 - (g) undischarged bankruptcy.
- (2) The Authority, if it considers desirable in the public interest so to do, may suspend the Director General from exercising the duties of his office for up to sixty days pending investigations to determine whether or not he may be removed from the office under subsection (1).

- (3) The Director General shall not be removed from office unless he has been given an opportunity to be heard.

13. Deputy Director General

- (1) The Authority shall appoint the Deputy Director General of the Authority through competitive selection process on such terms and conditions as the Authority shall determine.
- (2) The Deputy Director General shall perform such functions and duties as may be assigned to him by the Director General.
- (3) Sections 11 and 12 shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of tenure of office and removal of the Deputy Director General.

14. Acting Director General

- (1) If the office of the Director General is vacant or the Director General is absent from duty or unable for any other reason to perform the functions of his office, the Deputy Director General shall act as Director General.
- (2) If both the Director General and the Deputy Director General are absent from duty or unable for any other reason to perform the functions of their offices, the Authority shall appoint another duly qualified person within the Authority to act as Director General during such temporary absence or vacancy:

Provided that where the period of such temporary absence has exceeded twenty-one days, the Authority shall, within fourteen days thereafter, furnish to the Minister the reasons why the vacancy in both or either of the two offices cannot be substantively filled with immediate effect and an estimate of the time within which the vacancy shall be filled, being not longer than six months from the expiry of twenty-one days herein referred to.

15. Other staff of the Authority

The Director General shall appoint other members of staff as may be required for the performance of the functions of the Authority on such terms and conditions determined by the Authority.

16. Funds of the Authority

The operational and financial costs of the Authority shall be provided through—

- (a) advances made to the Authority under section 18;

 - (g) preparing contract documentation and managing the resultant contract in conjunction with user departments.

Part IV – Principles procurement and disposal of assets

30. Principles of public procurement

All public procurement proceedings shall be conducted in a manner which promotes transparency, accountability, non-discrimination, fairness, open competition, anonymity, economy, efficiency and responsiveness to modern information and communications technology.

31. Principles of disposal of assets

- (1) All disposal proceedings shall be conducted in a manner which promotes transparency, accountability and fairness.
- (2) All disposal proceedings shall be conducted in a manner to maximize competition and achieve value for money.
- (3) A bidder shall not be excluded from participating in disposal on the basis of nationality, race, religion, gender or any other criterion not related to qualification, except to the extent provided for in this Act.
- (4) A procuring and disposing entity shall, in all disposal proceedings, choose appropriate procedures and cause the disposal of assets to be carried out diligently and efficiently, so that the prices received by the procuring entity represent the best value or net outcome that can reasonably be obtained for the assets disposed of.
- (5) Procuring and disposing entities shall plan disposal activities with a view to achieving maximum value from any such disposals and other objectives set forth in this Act.

- (6) A procuring and disposing entity shall, take due care of all assets earmarked for disposal its public assets until such time the actual disposal is concluded as prescribed in this Act.

32. Records of procurement and disposal proceedings

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity shall maintain records of all procurement and disposal proceedings for a period of five years from the date of—
 - (a) contract completion or termination;
 - (b) the decision to cancel the procurement proceedings or disposal process;
 - (c) the settlement of any dispute under a procurement contract; or
 - (d) the resolution of any complaint, challenge or appeal made under this Act.
- (2) In an event that the period referred to in subsection (1) has expired but the documentation has not been subjected to an audit, the records of procurement and disposal proceedings shall still be maintained by the procuring and disposing entity.

33. Mode of communication

All communication, including electronic communication, between a procuring and disposing entity and a bidder, supplier or contractor shall be in English and in writing.

34. Confidentiality

- (1) All public officials shall keep confidential, the information that comes into their possession relating to the procurement and disposal proceedings and to bids, including any bidder's proprietary information:

Provided that the procuring entity shall upon request for an unsuccessful bidder communicate to the bidder the grounds for the rejection of its application to pre-qualify all of its bid.
- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence, and shall, upon conviction, be liable—
 - (a) to a fine of K500,000 and to imprisonment for two years; and
 - (b) disciplinary action.

35. Limitation on contracts with employees

A procuring and disposing entity shall not enter into a procurement or disposal contract with its employee, or any close relative of any employee.

36. Participation by micro, small and medium enterprises

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity may, in the prescribed manner—
 - (a) grant a margin of preference for the benefit of a bid by a micro, small and medium enterprise offering goods, works, consultancy services or other services manufactured, grown or performed by a local enterprise; and
 - (b) reserve or set aside certain procurement requirements for micro, small and medium enterprises by restricting bidding to those enterprises as prescribed in the Act.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Director General, in consultation with the Ministers responsible for trade, economic or social policy may, by order published in the Gazette, prescribe any preference or reservation for micro, small and medium enterprises.

Part V – Procurement and disposal methods

37. Methods of procurement

- (1) Public procurement shall be realized by means of open tender proceedings, subject to the exceptions provided in this section, and as may be prescribed in the regulations.
- (2) Subject to the approval of the Director General, the application of subsection (1) may be waived in the case of national defence or national security related procurement to the extent that such procurement is determined to be of a sensitive nature, in accordance with regulations.
- (3) Restricted tender may be used in the following cases—
 - (a) when the goods, works or services are only available from a limited number of suppliers, all of whom are known to the procuring and disposing entity; and
 - (b) the time and cost of considering a large number of bids is disproportionate to the value of the procurement.
- (4) A tender may be held in two stages in the following cases—
 - (a) when it is not feasible at the outset of the procurement proceedings to define fully the technical or contractual aspects of the procurement; or
 - (b) when, because of the complex nature of the goods, works and services to be procured, the procuring and disposing entity wishes to consider various technical or contractual solutions, and to negotiate with bidders about the relative merits of those variants, before deciding on the final technical or contractual specifications.
- (5) An international tender (otherwise referred to as an “international competitive bidding”) shall involve publication in the international media of the invitation to submit bids, or to apply for pre-qualification.
- (6) International competitive bidding shall be held in the following cases—
 - (a) where the estimated value of the stated procurement exceeds the amount set by regulations;
 - (b) where the goods, works or services are not available under competitive price and other conditions from more than two suppliers in Malawi; or
 - (c) where a supplier was not identified by a national tender proceeding.
- (7) Request for proposals is the method to be used for the procurement of consultancy services.
- (8) The request for quotations method may be used for the procurement of goods, works and routine services when the estimated value of the procurement does not exceed the amount set by the regulations.
- (9) Single-source method is permitted only in the following circumstances—
 - (a) where the estimated value of the procurement does not exceed the amount set in the regulations;
 - (b) where only one supplier has the technical capability or capacity to fulfill the procurement requirement, or only one supplier has the exclusive right to manufacture the goods, carry out the works, or perform the services to be procured;
 - (c) where there is an emergency need for the goods, works and services; or
 - (d) where the procuring and disposing entity, having procured goods, works and services from a supplier, determines that additional goods, works or services need to be procured from the same source for reasons of standardization or because of the need for compatibility with existing goods, equipment, technology, or services, taking into account the effectiveness of the original procurement in meeting the needs of the procuring and disposing entity, the limited size of the proposed procurement in relation to the original procurement, the reasonableness of the price and the unsuitability of alternatives to the goods or services in question.

- (10) Use of the method of procurement other than open tender or, in the case of procurement of consultancy services, a method other than request for proposals, is subject to approval by the Director General; and the procuring and disposing entity shall note in the record of the procurement proceedings the grounds for the choice of the procurement method:

Provided that when seeking approval from the Director General to use the method other than open tender or the case of procurement of consultancy services, a method other than request of proposal, the procuring and disposing entity shall provide written reasons with sufficient clarity to the Director General for the choice of the procurement method.

- (11) Single source method of procurement or any high value procurement shall be subject to vetting by the Anti-Corruption Bureau, pursuant to the powers conferred on the Bureau under section 10 of the Corrupt Practices Act.

[Cap. 7:04]

- (12) The Authority shall by regulations prescribe the threshold for the high value procurements referred to under subsection (11).

38 . Disposal of assets

- (1) Public assets shall be disposed of by open means such as public auction or tendering with sealed bids.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a procuring and disposing entity may, upon obtaining prior approval from the Director General, use alternative means including—
- (a) transfer the asset to another procuring and disposing entity;
 - (b) destruction or writing off of the asset;
 - (c) trade-in; or
 - (d) conversion or classification of asset into another form.

Part VI – Procurement and disposal planning and proceedings

39. Planning of procurement and disposal activities

- (1) Procuring and disposing entities shall plan procurement and disposal activities with a view to achieving maximum value from both public expenditures and disposal proceedings including other objectives set forth in this Act.
- (2) Procuring and disposing entities shall not artificially split procurement or disposal requirements with a view to circumventing the use of competitive methods of procurement or disposal as prescribed by the Authority.
- (3) Any person who contravenes either subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine of K500,000 and imprisonment for two years.
- (4) The annual procurement and disposal plans shall be submitted to the Authority by the last date of the first month of the financial year failing which the Authority shall impose necessary sanctions to the procuring and disposing entity and the Controlling Officer.
- (5) The Authority shall report the Controlling Officer to relevant authorities for disciplinary sanctions in case of non-compliance with the sanctions imposed pursuant to subsection (4).

40. Publication of invitation to bid

- (1) An invitation to tender, or an invitation to prequalify, shall be published in two national widely circulated newspapers and, in the case of international tendering, shall also be published in internationally recognized papers in the English language, and in other media of wide international circulation, and the website of the Authority.
- (2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the procuring and disposing entity shall publish in the Gazette all procurements of values and nature as may be prescribed from time to time by the Authority.
- (3) In addition to the publication referred to in subsection (1), the invitation to tender, or an invitation to prequalify, shall be displayed in the head office of the procuring and disposing entity in a publicly accessible place.

41. Issuance of bidding document

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity shall ensure that bidding documents—
 - (a) are provided to all bidders responding to the invitation, to tender or, in the event of pre-qualification proceedings, to all bidders that have been pre-qualified;
 - (b) provide bidders with the information that they require in order to submit bids that are responsive to the needs of the procuring and disposing entity; and
 - (c) include the terms and conditions of the resultant contract.
- (2) Where a fee is charged for the bidding documents, such a fee shall only reflect the cost of printing and distributing the documents.
- (3) All bidders' shall be provided with the same information.
- (4) A procuring and disposing entity shall respond promptly to any request by a bidder for clarification of the bidding documents that is received by the procuring and disposing entity prior to the deadline for the submission of bids, and responses to such requests for clarification shall be circulated to all participating bidders.

42. Submission of bids

- (1) A bid shall be submitted in written form as instructed in the bidding document.
- (2) A bidding document may provide for submission of bids electronically:
Provided that measures are put in place to protect the confidentiality of bidders' bids, and to ensure their authenticity and integrity.
- (3) A procuring and disposing entity shall, upon request, provide to a bidder a receipt showing the date and time when its tender was received.
- (4) The deadline for submission of bids shall be set taking into account the nature of the procurement or disposal process and the time required for the preparation of bids.
- (5) The minimum bidding periods for the various procurements shall be as follows—
 - (a) international competitive bidding – forty-five days;
 - (b) national competitive bidding – thirty days;
 - (c) restricted tender – twenty-one days;
 - (d) request for proposals – twenty-one days;
 - (e) request for quotation method – five days;

- (f) single sourcing – five days; and
- (g) single sourcing in an emergency – twenty-four hours:

Provided that the procuring and disposing entity may seek a waiver from the Director General to carry out specific procurement for a shorter period than provided in this section.

43. Bid opening

- (1) Bids shall be opened at the time and place indicated in the bidding document, and the time of opening of the bids shall coincide with the deadline for submission of bids.
- (2) Bidders or their respective representatives may attend the opening of bids at which the names and addresses of the bidders submitting bids, and their prices, shall be read out and recorded.

44. Bid evaluation

- (1) The choice of evaluation methodology shall be determined by the type, value and complexity of the procurement or disposal requirement and shall be done in accordance with this Act and as may be prescribed in regulations.
- (2) Bids shall be evaluated and compared only in accordance with the criteria, and their relative weight, as set forth in the bidding document.
- (3) Bids containing non-material deviations may be evaluated, with the deviations being quantified in the manner indicated in the bidding documents.
- (4) Subject to section 47, no negotiations whatsoever may be held with bidders as to the substance or prices of their bids.
- (5) A procuring and disposing entity may only seek clarifications of bids, and may not solicit or accept changes in the substance or prices of bids.
- (6) In the evaluation of bids, a procuring and disposing entity may apply a margin of price preference in favour of domestic or regional bidders in accordance with the regulations, provided that such application has been disclosed in the bidding documents.
- (7) A successful bid shall be the lowest evaluated bidder subject to any margin of preference provided in the bidding documents. Alternatively, if so stipulated in the bidding documents, the successful bid shall be the lowest evaluated on the basis of price and subject to any margin of preference, and non-price criteria specified in the bidding documents.
- (8) Non-price criteria shall, to the extent practicable, be objective and quantifiable, and shall be given a relative weight in the evaluation procedure or be expressed in monetary terms, wherever practicable.
- (9) Prior to the entry into force of the procurement contract and, if so required, the successful bidder shall provide security for the performance of the contract.
- (10) A procuring entity shall ensure prioritization of all bids submitted to give preference to sixty per cent indigenous black Malawians and forty per cent others for national competitive bidding.

45. Use of standard bidding documents

- (1) The Director General shall issue standard bid documents to procuring and disposing entities for use in procurement and disposal proceedings.
- (2) The use of such standard bidding documents shall be mandatory on all procuring and disposing entities.

46. Cancellation of procurement proceedings

A procuring and disposing entity may—

- (a) reject all bids at any time prior to the acceptance of a bid, without incurring thereby any liability to the bidders;
- (b) cancel the procurement proceedings in the public interest, without incurring thereby any liability to the bidders; and
- (c) terminate a procurement contract for convenience, if it is determined to be in the public interest, and subject to payment for work satisfactorily completed, or services satisfactorily performed prior to the effective date of termination and for reimbursable expenses actually incurred, or for any goods specially manufactured under the procurement contract, and reasonable termination costs, but excluding lost profit.

47. Negotiations

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity may invite the lowest evaluated bidder for negotiations aimed at finalizing the award of the contract.
- (2) Negotiations shall not relate to the price of the bid, except in the case of single sourcing or where the price of the bid has not been taken into account in the evaluation methodology.
- (3) If the negotiations with the lowest evaluated bidder fail to result in an acceptable contract, the procuring and disposing entity shall, by letter addressed to that bidder, terminate the negotiations and invite the next ranked bidder for negotiations.

48. Intention to award a contract

The procuring and disposing entity shall publish the intention to award contract in two widely circulated newspapers and on the Authority's website for a period of fourteen days for any procurement contract above a threshold to be set by the Director General before signing the contract.
