TAXATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2024

MEMORANDUM

This Bill seeks to amend the Taxation Act (Cap. 41:01) in order to—

(a) provide for allowable deductions for monetary donations into the Disaster Risk Management Trust Fund;

(b) provide for allowable deductions for construction of a borehole, a water kiosk and other water supply facilities;

(c) to provide for non-allowability of deductions for expenditure where the invoices of the transactions are not generated from an electronic tax invoicing system;

(d) delete the “place of effective management” as a determinant of residency for the purposes of determining tax liability for a non-resident;

(e) provide new rates for presumptive tax for commercial passenger carrying vehicles;

(f) provide clarification on the entitlement to claim capital allowances in respect of leased assets;

(g) extend the 40 % tax rate on taxable income above K10 billion, to all companies;

(h) clarify that the concessional tax rate on investment of pension funds applies to the returns on the investment;

(i) amend the rates for Pay As You Earn;

(j) clarify that the withholding tax on payment for any supplies to traders and institutions in respect of foodstuff applies to edible farm produce in their raw state;

(k) extend the final withholding tax rate of 1% that applies to commissions for insurance agents and individual banking agents to also apply to individual agents recruited by an e-money service provider;

(l) reduce the withholding tax on interest realised from investment of life assurance premiums and pension contributions to 15%;

(m) amend the requirement for a tax clearance certificate on purchase of explosives to apply to issuance of an explosives licence or permit under the Explosives Act (Cap.14:09) by the Malawi Police Service; and

(n) introduce the requirement for a tax clearance certificate on issuance of a minerals export permit and application and renewal of industrial rebate licence.
