ORDER

The parties' marriage was dissolved by the Second Magistrate's Court at Thyolo and appeared before this court for purposes of distribution of their matrimonial property. It turned out that at the hearing each gave a different account of the individual items of property subject of the application before this court. In the result this court remains uncertain of the specific items of property is must distribute.

To enable the court to justly discharge its function in the case it is ordered that the parties do furnish to this court a settled and agreed written list of the items the parties seek to be distributed.

It is further ordered that unless the parties furnish the court with the said list by 30th June 2019 the parties shall be deemed to have abandoned the application and the matter shall stand closed.

Made in chambers at Blantyre this 10th day of May 2019.
