MINISTRY OF FINANCE

Vacancy Announcement

Auditor General—National Audit Office

Government of Malawi, through the Ministry of Finance is inviting applications from suitably qualified and experienced Malawian candidates to fill a vacant post whose details are as follows—

Post: Auditor General

Grade: B

Location: National Audit -Lilongwe

Age Limit: Not more 55 years of age at the date of being appointed

Terms of Employment: Five (5) years contract, renewable subject to satisfactory performance

BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT

The National Audit Office (NAO) is a government institution established under section 184 of the Constitution of Malawi. NAO is mandated to audit and report on the public accounts of Malawi, and has such other powers in relation to the public accounts of public authorities and bodies as prescribed by an Act of Parliament, in so far as they are compatible with the principal duties of the office.

In order to fulfil the organisation's mandate effectively and efficiently with strategic leadership and management, a rare opportunity has arisen to engage a qualified person of Malawian origin to fill the position of Auditor General for the National Audit Office (NAO) tenable at its offices in Lilongwe.

This is a very demanding position which requires a person with high level of integrity and professionalism, strategic leadership, and managerial innovations to make the NAO competitive and vibrant

SUMMARY OF THE JOB

The job-holder is responsible for overall management and operation of the organisation and ensuring that the NAO performs in accordance with its mandate as stipulated in the Public Audit Act (2003) and the constitution of Malawi.

KEY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Auditor General shall be responsible for carrying out duties and responsibilities conferred on him by the constitution, Public Audit Act or any other written law, and shall be responsible for the National Audit Office as follows—

1. Undertake a programme of audits, examine transactions, books and accounts, and other public records of every Ministry, statutory office, agency, board, commission, and bureau of government, and public funds received by a non-profit organisation, including relevant international organisations.
2. Undertake an audit programme to review and approve the audited accounts of statutory bodies and conduct audits of any statutory body that has not had its financial statements audited by a firm of public auditors, and where the Auditor General does not approve the audited financial statements of a statutory body, he shall commence an independent audit of the statutory body within thirty (30) days of rejecting the private audit report.

3. Audit and examine transactions, books and accounts, and other financial records associated with any project, programme, and other activity receiving funding in whole or part from public moneys.

4. Without limiting the general duties specified in 1 to 3 above, the Auditor General shall—

(a) monitor compliance with the requirements of any written law governing the management and control of public money and public resources;

(b) examine and review the estimates of revenue and expenditure of the consolidated fund, and other funds operated by the Government, accounts of ministries, agencies and statutory bodies and other entities receiving public moneys;

(c) review and confirm the discharge of financial management obligations, including maintenance of accounting records and adequate controls in the accounting system, to ensure that Controlling Officers, Ministries, agencies and statutory bodies have complied with their financial management obligations under the law; and

(d) in reviewing financial management and obligations determine whether the procedures and systems of internal control of each ministry, agency and statutory body does ensure—

(i) revenue is properly assessed and collected,

(ii) expenditure is validly and correctly authorised,

(iii) revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities are properly recorded and accounted for,

(iv) financial and operating information is reliable,

(v) assets are safeguarded against loss or destruction,

(vi) resources are employed and managed in an effective economic and efficient manner,

(vii) there has been no waste or extravagance,

(viii) outcomes or provisions produced are consistent with those specified in the Appropriation Act.

(ix) Relevant Government policies and legislations are being complied with,

(x) all expenditure is charged against the relevant allocation appropriated by the National Assembly, and

(xi) the accounts and records have been properly kept.

(e) arrange for all audits to be undertaken and confirm that such audits are completed to a standard consistent with the generally accepted audit practice;

(f) pursue any concern that arises in respect of the management of public resources which, in the Auditor General's opinion, justifies further investigations;

(g) perform follow-up audits when the Auditor General considers it appropriate; and

(h) carry out such other audits or reviews as may, from time to time, be necessary.

5. Subject to agreement of priorities and the allocation of budgeted funds and resources for this purpose, the Auditor General shall—

(a) Assist the Public Accounts Committee in its scrutiny of adherence to any written law dealing with the administration and management of public money and public property;

(b) Assist the Public Accounts Committee of Parliament to discharge its obligations, functions and responsibilities as provided for under section 19 of the Public Audit Act, including—

(i) Conducting audits, reviews, investigations and inquiries into matters referred to the Auditor General by the Public Accounts Committee;

(ii) furnish the Public Accounts Committee with such information, analysis, appraisals, recommendations and advice that will assist in the performance of the duties and functions of the committee;

(iii) consider issues and recommendations contained in the report of the Public Accounts Committee to Parliament and other audit reports concerning ministries, agencies, statutory bodies and ministerial offices and, where applicable, take the appropriate follow up action; and

(vi) ensure that every reference to the Auditor General by the Public Accounts Committee shall contain specific terms upon which the Auditor General shall be expected to undertake any audit, review, investigation or inquiry.
